

I urge you to retain the present rules. There is far too much consolidation and control by a few corporations now. Cast your vote on the side of the public.